Missouri's offense was a mess in 2015, but the Tiger defense still performed at a top 10 level. Former defensive coordinator Barry Odom is now the head coach, so the Tigers should continue their defensive excellence with eight returning starters, led by the edge-rushing duo of Charles Harris and Walter Brady...The Wisconsin defense was always one of the best in the nation under Dave Aranda, but he's now at LSU. New coordinator Justin Wilcox comes to Madison from USC where his units vastly underperformed.

- 11  MICHIGAN: Most publications pick the Wolverines to win the Big 10, but we like Ohio State to crush Michigan's hopes for an undefeated season and National Championship on November 26. But make no mistake about it, the Wolves are loaded with one of the nation's best defenses and 8 returning starters.
- 12  SAN DIEGO STATE: The Aztecs have a top five defensive unit that led the way to a Mountain West Championship last year and will do it again in 2016. Offensively, they return 7 starters led by All American running back Donnel Pumphrey. They could be favored in every game this year.
- 13  BAYLOR: The Bears have a ton of talent, but how do they respond to their new Head Coach, Jim Grobe, and the sexual scandal that continues to rock the campus. The schedule sets up nicely to get off to a fast start, but a hellish five-game finish features games vs. Kansas State, TCU, Oklahoma, Texas and West Va.
- 14  IOWA: The Hawkeyes return a veteran QB, CJ Beathard, that has played in 28 games over the last three years, a solid running back in LeShun Danniels, and excellent WR corps as well as a defense that will be one of the nation's best. They miss Ohio State and Michigan State, so we'll call for a 10-2 finish.
- 15  USC: The Trojans have the toughest schedule in the country, but return 10 starters on what will be one of the nation's top offenses and a solid defense with the best secondary in the college game. Everyone else loves UCLA, but we think USC wins the Battle of LA and the Pac-12 South title!
- 16  FLORIDA: Head Coach Jim McElwain led the Gators to a 10-4 season in 2015 despite having one of the worst offenses in the nation. This year the offense improves, led by QB Luke DelRio, Jack's kid. He will throw to some talented receivers while the defense is top-notch. Schedule is brutal, but we still see 10-2.
- 17  MIAMI: Mark Richt inherits a very good squad at his alma mater. With 15 starters back on offense, including a veteran offensive line, a returning QB and some of the best WRs in the nation, this will be Miami's best offenses in 10 years! "D" is also much improved. Richt brings Miami back to prominence.
- 18  TEXAS: It's put up or get fired time for Head Coach Charlie Strong. He's 11-14 in three seasons and that lands him on my "Coaches on the Hot Seat" list for 2016, see box page 4. But the Longhorns return 15 starters and their toughest games are at home or neutral fields. Charlie survives with a 9-3 season.
- 19  CINCINNATI: The Bearcats are one of our "Super 7" Over/Under Win Best Bets (to get all seven of our Best Bets call 1-877-332-0077) and will win the AAC East Division. Defensively, Cinci returns eight starters and the offense is also loaded with veteran returnees, paving the way for a 9-3 season.
- 20  NORTH CAROLINA: The Tarheels were our "Go With" team in 2016 and went 9-3 for us! This year they again feature one of the nation's top offenses and a rock-solid defense. They could be favored in 10 games this year and a double-digit win total puts the Heels back in our pre-season Top 20!

HARRY BONDI SPORTS PRESENTS 2016 SEASON WIN TOTALS OVER/UNDERS

Over the years Harry Bondi's over/under season win totals have been highly sought after and proven to be extremely profitable, going 6-1 last year and winning at a 79% clip the last seven seasons. Below please find two of our 7 Best Bets for 2016. To receive five more Best Bets for 2016, visit HarryBondi.com or call 1-877-332-0077 and use the code: "Season Win Best Bets."

UNDER

49ERS: UNDER 6 WINS

We were fans of Chip Kelly at Oregon, but not so much in the NFL. He alienated players, coaches and front office personnel in Philly and his offensive system is better suited for the colleges. The QB situation is a mess and there are not many playmakers on offense. The "D" was in the middle of the pack last season and their points allowed per game is going to go way up. Wins will be hard to come playing in the NFC West, along with some difficult non-conference games.

OVER

SAN DIEGO ST.: OVER 9 WINS

A top-five defense will once again lead the way to a Mountain West Championship for the Aztecs. Veteran Head Coach Rocky Long's unique 3-3-5 defense is hard to prepare for because very few teams use it and the Aztecs are loaded with big playmakers who can completely take over a game. Offensively, they return seven starters and the schedule is manageable enough where they could be favored in every game and win them all, which is why we love Over 7 wins.

There is optimism in Nebraska as Mike Riley begins his second season. Sixteen starters return, led by quarterback Tommy Armstrong, who threw for 3,030 yards and 22 touchdowns last season, but he must cut down on his interceptions after throwing 16 last season. Husker's leading rusher Terrell Newby also returns, as does No. 1 receiver Jordan Westerkamp. Nebraska's schedule sets up nice as the Huskers avoid Michigan State and Michigan. They must travel to Iowa, Wisconsin and Ohio State, but there's reason to believe a significant improvement can happen in Riley's second season and it better. Another 6-7 season in Lincoln gets Riley canned.

Houston had a great start to 2016 beating Florida State in the Peach Bowl last January and retaining head coach Tom Herman, who was pursued by several teams. If not for a loss against UConn when QB Greg Ward Jr. was injured, the Cougars would have been undefeated in 2015. Houston is being hailed by some as the best non-Big 5 Conference team in the country this year, but the schedule is brutal. The Cougars open with a home game against Oklahoma, followed by road tests at Cincinnati, Navy and Memphis. Many are looking for Houston to win 10 or more, but we expect the Cougars to go 8-4 in what will be Herman's last season in Houston before moving on to Texas.

Illinois Head Coach Tim Beckman was canned last year as we predicted in our 2015 Coaches on the Hot Seat. Lovie Smith, who hasn't coached the college ranks in

HARRY BONDI'S COACHES on the HOT SEAT

- 1. Darrell Hazel - Purdue
He's 6-30 at Purdue and if not for a $6.7 million dollar buyout, he would already be gone. After another bad year this year, he will be gone.
- 2. Charlie Strong - Texas
Strong is just 11-14 the last two years and that doesn't cut it in Texas. If it's not an eight-win season, Strong is out in Austin.
- 3. Derek Mason - Vanderbilt
He's 4-17 against FBS teams in three years at Vandy. Enough said.
- 4. Mike MacIntyre - Colorado
Four wins in four years means Mike Mac must get to a bowl game in 2016, or he's a goner.
- 5. Mark Stoops - Kentucky
He's recruited well, but he can't coach them as seen by a 4-20 record in the SEC. Must make a bowl game in 2016 to save his job.

21 years, was a flashy hire for the Illini, but we don't expect him to do much better than his predecessor. Oklahoma State transfer Wes Lunt is back at QB and he did a nice job at QB last year throwing for almost 1800 yards with 14 TDs and only three interceptions. His back-up is Jeff George Jr., son of the former Illinois All American QB who was the top overall pick in the 1990 draft before flaming out with the Colts.

Harry Bondi has seen it all as a professional handicapper for the last 31 years. Don't throw your hard earned money away with your own picks or with an inferior service this season. Sure, you may not want to, or it might be tough for you to come up with the $2,500 to join the "Steam Team."

But remember, it's not where you start it's where you finish and last year I made small players $4,100 and dime players $41,000! That's a fact.

Don't be penny wise and pound foolish! If you don't join the "Steam Team" at our special pre-season rate, you may end up COSTING YOURSELF THOUSANDS of DOLLARS in the long run. So, call and speak to Harry Bondi before Sept. 1st and he'll put $500 in your pocket and let you join the "Steam Team" for only $2,000. We look forward to speaking with you today!
