HARRY BONDI'S EARLY BIRD SPECIAL: SAVE $1,000 on a "STEAM TEAM" Membership

For the last eight years, Harry Bondi has delivered BIG TIME for his Football "Steam Team" clients.

Last year was no exception as Bondi once again WON BIG going a perfect 4-0 on his four "Lock of the Year" Games, which won by a combined score of 160-50 (see box page 4)! Harry was also 13-4, 76% on his college top plays and ended another winning NFL season by going 8-3 in the post-season.

As great as 2016 was, the 2017 season promises to be even better, thanks to the addition of several handicapping veterans to what was already the industry's strongest group of handicappers.

We are about a month away from the start of the football season, but NOW IS THE TIME TO JOIN AND SAVE BIG! Our annual membership fee of $2,500 is the fairest in the business given the results we have produced, but if you join by Tuesday, Aug. 1 you can SAVE BIG and get the early bird rate of just $1,500. Call and speak personally to Harry Bondi at 1-877-332-0077 to SAVE BIG now and WIN BIG later.

Despite losing Dalvin Cook, Florida State is still loaded at running back. Jacques Patrick backed up Cook the last two seasons and will be the starter when the Seminoles open the season against Alabama Sept. 3. Sophomore speedster Amir Rasul is a great change of pace back, but they both will be backing up true freshman beast Cam Akers by the end of September. Akers was the No. 1 high school back in the country out of Clinton, Mississippi and was the most explosive player on the field at the FSU spring game where he rushed for 89 yards on 10 carries. On the other side of the ball, Florida State safety Derwin James, who missed 11 games in 2016 with a torn meniscus, is back and better than ever. James was everywhere in the spring game notching seven tackles including three behind the line of scrimmage.

That Alabama/FSU match-up is a monster game to kickoff the season in the brand new Mercedes-Benz Dome in Atlanta. It features two teams that have either won or played in the National Championship Game in five of the last six years. They are the two winningest programs over the last six years going 144-21. Alabama opened as a 7-point favorite in the game.

2017 SEASON WIN TOTAL OVER/UNDERS

Over the years Harry Bondi's over/under season win totals have been highly sought after and proven to be extremely profitable, going 6-2 last year and winning at a 79% clip the last eight seasons. Below please find two of our Best Bets for 2017. To receive five more Best Bets, please visit HarryBondi.com or call 1-877-332-0077 and use the code: "Season Win Best Bets."

TITANS: OVER 8.5 WINS

Tennessees won nine games last year and was one of our NFL Season Win Total Best Bet winners. In reality, they could have won 11 if QB Marcus Mariota didn't break his leg and miss the last two games. Running backs DeMarcus Murray and Derrick Henry are an outstanding tandem and run behind one of the best offensive lines in the NFL. First round draft pick Corey Davis, will contribute immediately and give Mariota a deep threat while the "D" added nose tackle Sylvester Williams and defensive back Logan Ryan to what was already a solid unit. We'll call for 10 wins. GO OVER!

EAGLES: OVER 8 WINS

The Eagles were 7-9 last year, but six of their nine losses were by a TD or less. They could have easily won nine games in 2016 and this year will be more experienced particularly at QB where Carson Wentz will be much improved in his second pro season. They also had more games lost to injuries by starters than any team in the NFL. Philadelphia added several veterans on both sides of the ball and with improved QB play, a better closing percentage in close games, and less injuries, getting to nine wins is a solid bet. GO OVER!

James Franklin has done an amazing job at Penn State and welcomes back 16 starters, including the nation's best running back, Saquon Barkley, and underrated QB Trace McSorley. When Franklin arrived in 2014, he had just seven scholarship offensive linemen and had to switch two defensive linemen to offense to help. Now, the offensive line is one of the nation's best and with a solid defense and manageable schedule in which they will be favored in every game except at Ohio State, we think Penn State wins back-to-back Big Ten titles.

Former LSU signal-caller Brandon Harris has transferred to North Carolina, where he will attempt to replace Mitch Trubisky. The Tarheels have several other contenders for Trubisky's spot including Nathan Elliott, Chazz Surratt and Logan Byrd, but none have the in-game experience of Harris. At LSU, Harris started 22 games and threw for 2,756 yards and 20 touchdowns, but was not accurate and widely inconsistent.

Matt Rhule's first spring as the new head coach at Baylor has featured a five-way QB battle although it looks to us like last year's starter Zach Smith will win the job. Smith was thrust into the starting role following the injury to starter Seth Russell and departure to Auburn of heir apparent Jarrett Stidham. Smith threw for 1,526 yards and 13 touchdowns in five games as the Bears starter. He saved his best for last throwing for 375 yards and three touchdowns in the Bears 31-14 Cactus Bowl win over Boise State. However, there are some interesting options at QB, including Anu Solomon, who tossed 49

Harry "BIG GAME" Bondi

touchdowns at Arizona before injuries derailed his career. Now a graduate transfer senior, Solomon's experience and running ability could be an X-factor for the Bears.

We have already broken down the 2017 NFL schedule, as we get ready to again get all "Steam Team" members off to one of our patented bankroll building FAST STARTS! Amazingly, both Cleveland and LA Rams will be underdogs in every game this year while the New England Patriots will be favored in every game in 2017.

No team has more to prove or has a coach on a hotter seat than Notre Dame and its head man Brian Kelly. ND had one of its worst seasons in history as they started the year ranked in the Top 10 and ended a disgraceful 4-8. Despite annually hyping his quarterback, Kelly has never produced a quarterback who stuck in the NFL in 25 years of head coaching. The Irish have one of their toughest schedules in years, but have an abundance of talent. If Kelly can't get eight wins in 2017 he will join a long line of Notre Dame head coaches getting paid while not coaching!

By the way, our preseason Top 10, "Coaches on the Hot Seat" and "Go With" and "Go Against" teams features, which have become wildly popular with the national media and readers alike due to their incredible accuracy, will be in upcoming issues of the Bondi Bulletin. The Bulletin, which features seven pointspread winners every week, is FREE for all "Steam Team" members. The cost is $99 for 22 issues for non-members. To subscribe, call Harry at 1-877-332-0077, or see the coupon on page 3 of this issue.

This offseason my staff and I poured over statistics and re-watched game film from last year to analyze what information led to pointspread winners and what mistakes with our losing picks. It was eye opening and we gleaned some incredible insight into what we did right and wrong that is going to lead to more winners than ever in 2017.

Nobody won more money for his clients in 2016 than Harry Bondi and his veteran staff.

With over 100 years of handicapping expertise and inside contacts that no one else has access to, 2017 will be even better.

We are already primed and ready for the start of football so if you want to have some fun and make some money betting football this season, and want to save yourself $1,000, call and speak to Harry Bondi before August 1 at 1-877-332-0077 to reserve your spot on America's best sports service, Harry Bondi's Football "Steam Team." We look forward to hearing from you soon!
