'KICKOFF' LOCK WINS SATURDAY!

It's that time of year! The days get shorter, kids go back to school and smart football bettors get with Harry Bondi. As I celebrate the 10th anniversary season of Harry Bondi Sports, and my 33rd year overall as a professional handicapper, I want to thank all of you who have joined me over the years and hope that if you have not joined us before, this is the year you become a member of the famed Football "Steam Team."

This Saturday, Sept. 8 we will release our highly anticipated 2018 Kickoff Lock! Last year's Kickoff Lock was another no-sweat winner as Tulsa (-14) trounced Louisiana-Lafayette, 66-42! It was a great way to start the season. This year's Lock will be just as easy. Don't miss it!

I have a long-term record of success that is unmatched in the sports service business. If you have talked to me over the years, you know that I am a straight shooter and one of the few handicappers in the business confident enough to offer only one set of selections.

Whether you're a $100 bettor or a dime bettor you get the same selections and the same level of service with no additional fees or requests to "upshift" for special "Millionaire Big Games."

If you have already signed up, welcome back to the "Steam Team." If you have not, then pick up the phone and call and speak to me personally at 1-877-332-0077 and join. It's the best investment you can make to ensure a winning football season. I look forward to speaking with you.

Urban Meyer should stop talking to the media and just issue statements that are written by someone in the PR department at Ohio State. Meyer has twice now had to issue written statements apologizing for what he did or didn't say at his press conferences! Meyer is a heartless liar who has looked the other way when confronted with criminal behavior throughout his coaching career, most notably at Florida where 31 players were arrested while he was head coach. The reason he allowed thugs like Aaron Hernandez, Carlos Dunlap and Janoris Jenkins, among many others, to keep playing after they were arrested was because they were instrumental in helping him win, and that's all Meyer cares about. But why hold onto a scumbag like Zach Smith who was an easily replaceable receivers coach? Because he is the grandson of former Ohio State Head Coach Earle Bruce, who gave Meyer his first college coaching job in 1986 at Ohio State and who again hired Meyer when he went to Colorado State. Meyer looked the other way as Smith beat his wife on multiple occasions and banged secretaries in his office at The Ohio State. Disgraceful!

BONDI'S BEST BETS

SATURDAY, SEPT. 8TH

BAYLOR over Texas-San Antonio 3:30 P.M. ET

Baylor took it on the chin last year, going 1-11 for rookie Head Coach Matt Rhule as the program paid dearly for the sins of former Head Coach Art Briles, who is now coaching a semi-pro team in Italy after disgracing himself in Waco by allowing the inmates to run the asylum. But the Bears return 93% of their offensive production from last year, which is second-best in the nation, and will be scoring points in bunches this season. The QB-RB duo of Charlie Brewer and John Lovett may be one of the most underrated in the country and after playing cupcake Abilene Christian in Week 1, the Bears will be locked, loaded and ready to avenge last year's embarrassing 17-10 home loss to UTSA as 16-point favorites. Not only are the Roadrunners in a Arizona State-Kansas

State road sandwich this week, but they also must replace 11 starters and 25 lettermen overall, including the starting quarterback and three starting offensive linemen. Baylor has been pointing to this game for the entire offseason and since UTSA is located just 200 miles from the Baylor campus, the Roadrunners are not going to have a significant home field advantage. The Baylor Revenge Tour begins! 41-17

★ E. MICH. over Purdue

The Boilermakers suffered some heavy losses on defense, having to replace 7 of their top 9 tacklers. This is also a tricky scheduling spot for Jeff Brohm's squad as they are off a physical Big 10 opener vs. Northwestern and have Missouri and BC on deck. The much-improved Eagles, meanwhile, come in off a soft opener at home vs. Monmouth and are much improved, with one of the best defenses in the MAC. 27-24

★ AIR FORCE over Fla. Atl.

Fly Boys are on a mission after uncharacteristically missing out on a bowl in 2017. It's a tremendous scheduling spot for veteran Head Coach Troy Calhoun (12th season) as the team played Stony Brook last week and has next week off, meaning Air Force spent the entire pre-season prepping for FAU, which is not used to defending the option, as seen by a 42-19 loss last year to Navy, which rushed for over 400 yards. It's 27-24

★ UTAH ST. over N.M. St.

Utah St. comes in off a tough opening-week test at Michigan St., but much like they did last year in Week 2 when they waxed Idaho State, 51-13, after a Week 1 loss to Wisconsin, the Aggies will bounce back big today. They've rushed for over 2,000 yards in nine straight seasons and return 18 starters, including the entire offensive line. That proves to be too much here vs. NM St., playing its third game in 14 days. It's 46-10

SUNDAY, SEPT. 9TH

NEW ORLEANS (-9.5) over Tampa Bay 1 P.M. EST

Since the news of Tampa Bay QB Jameis Winston's suspension was announced, this line jumped from 6.5 to 9.5, but, trust us, that is not enough. The Saints proved during the offseason that this is an "All In" year for them. The team has struggled in recent years in openers, going 0-4 ATS the last four years, so maniacal Head Coach Sean Payton has made it his mission during the preseason to come out clicking in front of the home crowd against a divisional foe to set the tone for the season. What's more, Payton is still pissed about a late season upset loss to Tampa last year in which they dominated the game, but ended up blowing a fourth quarter lead. The Bucs are just 2-7 ATS in their last nine road games and 3-8 ATS in Week 1 of the season. Back-up QB Ryan Fitzpatrick does not exactly give this team much confidence, especially as they open the season indoors at one of the toughest venues in the entire NFL with a head coach that is already on the hot seat. Tampa Bay loses BIG again in Week 1 and the noose immediately gets tighter for Head Coach Dirk Koetter, who we don't expect to have a job by December. Saints come marching in! 31-14

★ DENVER (-2.5) over Seattle

Yes, it's going to be a down year in Denver, but anytime we can get the Broncos in a home opener laying less than a FG, the buy sign is on, especially against a Seattle team that's in a huge transition year. Baffling to see the Seahawks, once again, not address their biggest concern (offensive line) while allowing some key cogs from the defense to defect. Pete Carroll falls to 2-8 ATS in his last 10 Week 1 games. It's 27-16

★ OVER 47 POINTS - Browns at Steelers

This has been a divisional series where the under has dominated (8-3 the last 11 meetings), but times have changed. The Steel Curtain defense is a shell of its former self, while the offense remains one of the best in the business with Big Ben, Le'Veon and Antonio. And, believe it or not, the Browns have some firepower on offense this year. An unusual shootout between the Browns and the Steelers. OVER

The LA Rams defense is outstanding on paper. They added physical cornerbacks Marcus Peeters and Aqib Talib to an already strong secondary and brought aboard maniacal defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh to team with fellow defensive tackle Aaron Donald to form the NFL's most unblockable defensive line duo. The new additions have explosive personalities, but veteran defensive coordinator Wade Phillips has proven he can work with big egos and the success or failure of the Rams going "all-in" this year will in large measure depend on him keeping the new additions in line.
