HARRY BONDI SPORTS PRESENTS

2026 NFL SEASON WIN OVER/UNDERS

Over the years, Harry Bondi's over/under season win totals have been highly sought after and have proven to be extremely profitable, winning at an 81% clip (84-20) the last 16 seasons. Here, we present two of our NFL Best Bets for 2026. To receive four more Season Over/Under Best Bets, visit HarryBondi.com or call 1-877-332-0077 and use the code: "Season Win Best Bets!"

OVER 7.5 WINS (-120)

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

New Orleans had one of the worst offenses in the NFL last season, and still won six games. All we are asking them to do with this bet is to win two more games in 2026. That should be no problem given that they play one of the league's easiest schedules, thanks to a weak NFC South and games against Cleveland, NY Giants, Arizona and Las Vegas. Last year, the offense was bottom 5 in explosive plays but this offseason they added RB Travis Etienne and wide receiver Jordyn Tyson to the offense that already features Chris Olave and Alvin Kamara. The defense is solid and QB Tyler Shough will improve in his 2nd year at the helm and was 5-4 last year with an offense that had a severe lack of talent. He could double that win total in 2026. We think it will be a big year for New Orleans. GO OVER!

OVER 10.5 WINS (-120)

BUFFALO BILLS

The Bills have won at least 11 games every year for the last six years! Buffalo faces a difficult schedule but they have four games against the Jets and Miami in their division and should split their games against the Patriots for five AFC East wins. They play the Raiders and Minnesota, which should both be easy wins, so if they win just four of their remaining nine games, this ticket will cash! Former head coach Sean McDermott is gone and was replaced with offensive coordinator Joe Brady. Josh Allen and the Bills' offense has been a Top 5 unit in the NFL under Brady, and will keep humming along and scoring points in bunches. Buffalo brought in Jim Leonard to tighten up a defense that allowed an average of 136 rushing yards per game and added WR DJ Moore to give one of the league's best QBs even more weapons. The Bills win 11 games or more for the 7th straight year. GO OVER!

The "U" is back after reaching the National Championship Game against Indiana last year and will contend for the championship again this year. The Canes plucked QB Darian Mensah, who threw for 3,900 yards and 34 TDs, and his favorite WR, Cooper Barkate, from Duke, adding to an already explosive offense, featuring last year's freshman sensation, Malachi Toney, and RB Mark Fletcher. Replacing two 1st round pass rushers, Reuben Bane and Akheem Mesidor, on defense will be tough but the Canes outbid everyone for Missouri defensive end Damon Wilson.

Since 2023, Oregon is 1-5 against teams that played for the national championship. Two losses to Washington in 2023, 1-1 vs Ohio State in 2024 and two losses to Indiana in 2025. But the Ducks are an amazing 37-0 against everyone else! Oregon is poised to again contend for the national championship in 2026 with QB Dante Moore returning, after turning down the NFL, and an abundance of returning talent on both offense and defense, highlighted by the best defensive line in the country.

On the opposite end of the Big 10 from Oregon, who is 17-1 in Big 10 play, is Wisconsin, who has gone 2-12 in their last 14 Big 10 games. Head coach Luke Finkell knows he's cooked if he doesn't win this year so he went out and got 14 transfers from the portal to help the Badgers 130th ranked offense. The key addition is QB Colton Joseph, a dynamic dual threat gunslinger who transfers in from Old Dominion.

Two "Go Against" teams this year are Colorado, which lost 36 players to the transfer portal and Iowa State, whose roster was gutted when HC Matt Campbell took 22 scholarship players with him to Penn State.

Georgia lost two games by a total of just 6 points last year but with a veteran QB in Gunner Stockton, who completed 70% of his passes last season for 24 TDs and just five interceptions, and the country's best defense, the Bulldogs are our pick to win the National Championship. We may be the only people picking Georgia over Texas to win the SEC and National Championship as everyone and his brother are on the Longhorns, but there is a ton of pressure on HC Steve Sarkisian to win it all in what will be QB Arch Manning's last year before moving on to the NFL, and we have seen Sark spit the bit too often.

It's strange to do a college football Top 10 and not have Alabama in it, but that's how far the Crimson Tide have fallen! Bama must replace a 1st round QB, 4 offensive line starters and several impact players on defense. This will be the worst Alabama offense in years!

Now is the time to join the "Steam Team." You'll not only save $1,000 but you'll get our preseason selections that are 22-7, 79%, the last 5 years FOR FREE! We don't recommend going big on any preseason game but with our best in the business contacts, we can find out whose playing to win and who's just playing to see who the best backups are.
